PLAN FRESH AIR VACATIONS FOR CITY CHILDREN

Preliminary arrangements for the entertainment in Adams county this summer of another contingent of "Fresh Air Fund" youngsters from New York City were made Tuesday afternoon when Miss Mary C. Bigelow, a New York social service worker came here and conferred with Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, last year's chairman of the local Fresh Air Fund committee.

Children from the lower east side section of New York City will arrive in Adams county on July 23 for their "vacations" on Adams county farms and in Adams county homes. Mrs. Coleman said. The number to be entertained in the county will depend upon the number of families willing to take children for a week or two weeks. There were 14 last year, Mrs. Coleman said, adding that she hoped the county would entertain many more this summer.

As a social service worker, Miss Bigelow is familiar with conditions in the congested tenement districts of the metropolis, and assists the New York Herald Tribune's Fresh Air Fund and the "Friendly Town" committee part time in helping arrange the vacations for the city youngsters.

Frederick Lewis, president of the Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund, will speak here before the Woman's Club of Gettysburg outlining the plan, on April 14.

BIBLE SCHOOL ASKS SITE HERE

The board of directors of the Eastern Bible Institute, Green Lake, Pa., contemplates a re-location of its school, and would like to locate it in or near Gettysburg, according to a letter received by Henry W. Garvin, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

"The board of directors of Eastern Bible Institute, located at Greer, Lane, Pa., have requested me to write you for information concerning property that might be in the market in the vicinity of your city which would be suitable for the re-location of the above school," wrote Mr. Armstrong.

"A former school property, if such is available, would be ideal," the letter continued. "However, something that might be easily converted to such a purpose without too great a cost would be of interest to us."

Mr. Garvin said the letter was being taken under advisement.

COMMISSIONERS CONFER TODAY WITH TIPPLE

The Adams county commissioners this morning conferred with the local state highway superintendent, Raymond P. Tipple, on two matters pertaining to roads in the county.

Acting at the request of a number of countians who will be affected in their daily trips to work by closing of the Lincoln highway for reconstruction, the commissioners asked the state highway department if it would be possible to maintain the road across Big Flat as an alternate route for persons working at Letterkenny during the time the Lincoln highway is closed.

The commissioners' office said that it appears probable that such a plan will be carried out by the state as a convenience to the motorists.

Church Road Problem

At the request of residents of the area near the new bridge placed over Marsh creek, near Knoxlyn, the commissioners sought to discover whether the state can construct a better approach to the hard-surfaced highway from the road leading past the Marsh Creek Church of the Brethren. When the new bridge was built, they were informed, the contractor established a new entrance from the church road, but rain has caused the approach to sink and, according to reports given the commissioners, five cars were stuck in mud on the approach at one time recently.

The highway department records showed that the approach had been turned back to the township road supervisors but Tipple promised to see if there is any possibility of higher officials in the highway department authorizing any further work on the approach. Legally, with the road section already turned back to the township it seems unlikely that some loophole might be found to justify authorization of such repairs, according to the report given the commissioners.

FIND BODIES OF CRASH VICTIMS

Woodland, Wash., March 24 (AP)—Officials pieced together today a dramatic story of the deaths of eight air crash victims and the survival of two other fliers in rugged Washington mountain country.

Searchers found bodies of the eight yesterday. The 10 men were aboard an Air Force transport plane which crashed into a mountain Sunday. Survivors were Major John B. Harding, Portland, Ore., the pilot, and Pfc. John M. Belmonte, East Boston, Mass.

The two survivors had crawled through several miles of deep snow in the timbered wilderness—the pilot with a broken leg—to reach a cabin Monday night. Tuesday morning they called to loggers working nearby. Both men froze their hands and feet and suffered from shock.

Their rescue was the first clue to the whereabouts of the C-47 plane that had vanished Sunday afternoon during a torrential rain storm. The transport was approaching Portland air base for a landing after a flight from Fairfield-Suisun base, California.

Bodies of the others were found last night by searchers. Four were huddled together under one wing of the plane. Another—his leg severed below the knee—was found leaning against a tree several hundred yards down the mountain from the shattered transport. A sixth was seated in the burned out radio cockpit.

Two bodies were located about a mile from the wreckage when searchers persisted on the possibility that there were more than the officially listed eight men aboard.

Major Harding was quoted as saying the plane flew into a "thunderhead" at about 3,000 feet altitude. He said the plane flipped over, but by the time it was righted again, they had lost altitude and crashed.

TORNADO HITS NORTH CAROLINA

Charlotte, N. C., March 24 (AP)—A thickly populated section of North Carolina escaped serious damage last night when a tornado roared across the state.

The twister struck first in Mecklenburg county, near the South Carolina border. It continued a threatening northeasterly course at a high altitude for more than 100 miles, across the state's heavily industrialized Piedmont section.

Three of North Carolina's larger cities, Salisbury, High Point and Greensboro, were in the path of the high winds. Radio warnings alerted residents along the storm's course but the twister remained above 3,500 feet as it roared over those areas. Three hours after striking near Charlotte and Concord, the tornado crossed into Virginia where it apparently dissipated itself.

TRUMAN MAY FACE BATTLE

Washington, March 24 (AP)—Reports of new big-city opposition and a "serious political situation" in California multiplied signs today that President Truman may face a tough fight for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Chicago politicians visiting Washington were said to have brought word that they fear it will not be long before the rash of criticism for Mr. Truman's policies breaks out in their ranks.

Unlike the Dixie complaint against the President's civil rights program, northern opposition is based on the administration's about-face on Palestine.

Criticism became so hot in New York that three Brooklyn district leaders announced they won't support the president for the nomination. One of these, James M. Power, said last night two party clubs in the 13th Assembly district shortly will announce their support of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

At Los Angeles, Democratic State Chairman James Roosevelt summoned 62 prospective national convention delegates to an "urgent meeting" in Sacramento next Thursday. Roosevelt issued the call "because of the serious political situation."

CORPORATIONS UNDER NEW TAX

Harrisburg, March 24 (AP)—A recent state Supreme Court opinion clearly brings corporations under a new state law broadening the local tax base, say state Justice Department sources.

The opinion, handed down Monday, upheld Pittsburgh's right to levy a tax on corporations as well as others.

"The court's opinion certainly brings corporations within the field of local taxation under the new law," said a department spokesman who declined quotation by name. The new state law allows communities to tax anything not already levied by the commonwealth.

Some coal companies previously raised the question of whether corporations already pay corporate net income and capital stock taxes.

R. T. Laing, Kittanning, executive secretary of the Mineral Producers Association, had described as "illegal" any local taxes on coal mined by corporations. He pointed to a decision by the Horton township school board, Elk county, to drop a proposed tax of one per cent on every ton of coal mined in the township.

The decision stemmed from the belief that coal corporations were exempt. But the Justice Department spokesman said the school district may reimpose the tax without fear of discrimination against coal companies owned by individuals or partnerships.

TRACING HUMAN BONES AT YORK

York, Pa., March 24 (AP)—State police set out today to trace the origin of a bale of scrap paper which contained the headless skeleton.

The bones were discovered by accident here yesterday when an employee of a local paper mill broke open a big bale of waste paper. The bones were stacked neatly in a cardboard box which fell out of the bale.

State Police Detective Carl Hartman said the bale was not of local origin but its shipping point could be traced.

He added there were no clues in the bale which might aid in identifying the bones or who inserted them in the bale.

"The carton might have been thrown in with a lot of paper trash," he told a reporter, "and never noticed by the person operating the baling machine."

The bones were identified as human by Dr. Lewis G. Pusch, pathologist at the York hospital. Hartman said the bones consisted of both legs up to the hip, and both arms and hands. Missing were the skull, vertebra, ribs and pelvis.

F & M Revises And Raises Tuitions

Lancaster, Pa., March 24 (AP)—A comprehensive tuition fee of $500 a year, or $250 a semester, will become effective next September at Franklin and Marshall college. F & M officials announced.

The college's tuition fee prior to 1945 was $175 a semester, plus laboratory, medical, athletic and other fees. In 1945 a comprehensive fee was first adopted with a net increase of $15 per semester.

The college in its announcement yesterday said the increase was made necessary by faculty salary scale adjustments in the last two years and a steady decrease in income from endowments.

Harrisburg, March 24 (AP)—The way was cleared today for state employees in the army, navy or marine corps reserve, to take two weeks' leave with pay for field training. ### Stags Qualify For BAA Playoffs

(By The Associated Press.)

The Chicago Stags qualified for the Basketball Association of America playoffs last night while the St. Louis Bombers were getting the jump on Philadelphia in the series between divisional leaders.

The Stags downed the Washington Capitols, 74-70, at Chicago to unravel only partly the three-way second place tie that existed in the western division at the end of the regular campaign.

Now Chicago must play Baltimore, the third team in the knot, Thursday night in Chicago in an effort to separate the clubs sufficiently to begin the other playoff series.

The playoffs match the 1-2-3 finishers of the two divisions in respective order.

The state championship will be held at the Penn Palestra, Saturday, April 3.

Meanwhile, in Class B circles, Bridgeport defeated Weatherly, 43-41, last night to gain the finals for the eastern title.

Other Class B semi-finals games will be played tonight with Irwin and Stonycreek Township meeting at Pitt Pavilion in the west, and Mansfield and Swoyersville colliding at Kingston in the east.

Musial's Brother Signs With Senators

Harrisburg, March 24—The famous baseball name of Musial will appear on Manager Les Bell's Harrisburg Senators' roster this year, Business Manager Frank Spair disclosed today.

Ed Musial, left-handed first baseman and outfielder, brother of the St. Louis Cardinals' Stan Musial, will report to Manager Bell for spring training Monday, March 29, Spair said.

Musial was signed to a Senators' contract when Bell discovered several weeks ago that he had successfully dickered with the Fayetteville, N. C., club for his outright release. Bell immediately contacted the Monongahela, Pa., six-footer, bidding along with four other clubs for the left-hander's services. The Senators' substantial bonus led the 2

DREAD POULTRY DISEASE CAN BE PREVENTED NOW

Trenton, N. J., March 24 (AP)—The state Department of Agriculture today announced Wene poultry laboratories of Pleasantville, owned by Senator Elmer H. Wene, has developed a vaccine for preventive treatment of a deadly poultry disease.

Reporting it has authorized Wene's firm to start manufacture and distribution, the department said the vaccine will be used to forestall the spread of the Newcastle disease.

Dr. R. A. Hendershott, director of the department's division of animal industry, described the disease as highly contagious and infectious, and pointed out that it has affected most of the commercial poultry flocks in the state this year.

High Mortality
He said New Jersey poultrymen have experienced high mortality in their flocks and lowered egg production from surviving hens as a result of the disease. Young baby chicks were said to be especially susceptible. Caused by what was termed a filtrable virus, the disease has affected chickens, turkeys, pheasants, ducks, geese and other birds.

Hendershott noted that the Newcastle disease is prevalent throughout the nation and has caused serious losses to owners of all types of poultry. It first appeared in the U. S. in California in 1939. The first out-

FARM CALENDAR

Improve Soil Tilth—High-quality organic matter, when mixed with the soil generally insures good tilth. Legumes provide the best material. Other sources are fine-rooted and fine-stemmed grasses, green manure crops, and barnyard manure.

Change Calf Rations—Calves three months old may be changed gradually from a calf starter to a calf grower ration. Grower rations should be rich in nutrients with 16 per cent protein, most of it from soy oil meal or linseed oil meal.

Force Dahlia Tubers—Dahlia tubers may be forced into growth during March to produce young shoots which, when taken off as cuttings and rooted, will produce separate plants for setting out later, reminds A. O. Rasmussen, extension ornamental horticulturist of the Pennsylvania State college.

Grow Good Lettuce—Many home gardeners prefer Slowbolt, Grand Rapids No. 1 or Black Seeded Simpson for satisfactory leaf lettuce, says J. O. Dutt, Penn State extension vegetable specialist. For head lettuce they like Great Lakes, Imperial 44, or Big Boston.

Time for the Garden—Either hydrated lime or ground limestone may be used in the home garden, according to Penn State vegetable extension specialists. Hydrated lime break in New Jersey occurred in February, 1945.

He said the new vaccine will be injected into chicks at the age of five weeks, and ready-to-lay pullets at the fifth month. He made clear that it is only a preventive, and has no curative properties.

acts more quickly while the ground limestone has a longer-lasting effect.

Use Wood Ashes—Because they contain lime and potash, wood ashes may be used to advantage on the rose or flower border, says A. O. Rasmussen, Penn State extension ornamental horticulturist.

Treat Garden Seeds—Because many garden seeds carry disease-producing fungi and bacteria, treating the seed is recommended by L. O. Weaver, extension plant pathologist of the Pennsylvania State college. Instructions on treatment of most vegetable seeds can be obtained from your county agricultural agent.

Stop Using Lights—About April 1, days are long enough to stop using lights in the laying house. C. O. Dossin, extension poultry specialist of the Pennsylvania State college, suggests tapering off in use of lights. Start them about a half hour later for a few days until starting time coincides with daylight.

Control Hog Lice—A 10 per cent DDT dust rubbed into the hair of hogs, with some spread on the litter, gives effective control of lice, says L. C. Madison, Penn State livestock extension specialist. Keep it out of feed and water and troughs.

Use Rubber Tires—Almost any implement or vehicle on the farm can be improved and its efficiency increased by using rubber tires, according to C. H. Bingham, Penn State extension agricultural engineer.

Spray Schedule Ready—The new 1948 spray schedules for peach, apple, pear and quince growers, prepared by Penn State extension specialists, are available at county agents' offices.

In 1944 the U. S. Air Transport Command had 10 times as many miles of air routes as were operated by all the world's airlines before World War II.

Draft Evasions Bring Sentences

Philadelphia, March 24 (AP)—Frank Peskin, 40, former Philadelphia night club manager, was sentenced yesterday to two years imprisonment on a draft dodging charge.

Peskin was convicted last week on a charge he obtained a second deferment from World War II service through failure to report essential facts to his draft board.

Judge Guy K. Bard also added six months to the sentence of Thomas B. Ward, Jr. Ward already is under sentence of three years and six months on charges of defrauding the government through payroll padding of the now extinct Marine Welding company.

Ward's second sentence was on a charge he aided Peskin in getting a deferment. Peskin was released on $2,000 bail and Ward on $1,000 bond.

WILL RUSSIANS USE BAYONETS TO OUST YANKS?

By SIGRID ARNE

(AP Foreign News Analyst)

Russian actions in Berlin the past few days make it look as though another hope may shortly go glimmering: The hope of rebuilding Germany into a healthy, peace-loving nation.

Since the end of the war Berlin has been the place where the four occupying powers—the Americans, the British, French and Russians—have worked together in a council. Each power controls a portion of the city, although Berlin itself lies in the eastern section of Germany which Russia occupies.

But now the Communist papers in Berlin are suggesting that the Westerners get out.

And Saturday the Russian delegate, Marshall V. D. Sokolovsky, walked out of a council meeting.

Reds Break Pledges

The Russians claim the three Western powers have broken all their pledges to run Germany as a unit. But that is exactly what the Western powers have thought of the Russians all through 1946 and 1947. The immediate action which angered Sokolovsky was the fact that the British, French and Americans met in London last week to talk about commerce in their three Western sections of Germany.

Ever since the war ended, the four-power meetings in Berlin have had trouble because the Russian delegate either delayed or refused to agree to plans which the other three approved.

The most annoying difference has been over the use of goods which the Germans themselves produced. A definite plan was laid down for them at Potsdam, where the Americans, British and Russians met in midsummer 1945 to plot Germany's future.

Steal Reich Food

They agreed that any surplus goods turned out by the Germans should be put into a pool. Those pooled goods were to be sold abroad to pay for things the Germans would have to import.

The Westerners waited for some move from the Russians to chip in. German food was grown in the Russian sector. But as the months passed no goods ever showed up. The Russians made no reports on what their sector was doing. No officers from the Western powers were permitted to take a good look—see at the Russian sector.

The next step is up to the Russians. They can get over their peevishness and continue to attend the meetings, or they can boycott them.

Yanks Resist Force

If they boycott them, the three Western powers could go on holding meetings that will have no effect on Eastern Germany and hence will have little hope of ever knitting all of Germany together.

The Russians could get tough. They could insist, with troops, on what papers are now saying: That the Westerners leave Berlin—which would leave Eastern Germany in Russian hands.

There is no official information in Washington on what the United States would do if Russian bayonets suddenly were turned against the handful of American troops in Berlin. But off-the-record statements remind you that Americans don't like to be thrown out of places.

'Healthiest Boy' Is Hanged At Play

Audubon, N. J., March 24 (AP)—Barry Wayne Lafave, eight, who was named New Jersey's "healthiest and prettiest" baby boy in 1941, hanged himself accidentally yesterday while playing a game of "cowboys and horse thieves." Police Sgt. Henry Mehrer said.

Mehrer said the child's parents discovered their son's body in the basement of their home after returning from a business trip to Camden, N. J.

The parents said Barry had been fond of re-enacting wild west scenes, alternating in the role of

LIGHTED TREE EASTER SYMBOL

Reading, Pa., March 24 (AP)—The lighted tree symbolizing Christmas is becoming a symbol for Easter through the efforts of a Reading woman.

It was 18 years ago that Mrs.

Elmer Palsgrove first decorated a tree with colored Easter eggs to herald the coming of Easter.

This Holy Week a 10-foot sassafras tree hung with 1,400 colored Easter eggs is on public display for the first time at the Historical Society of Berks county.

Most of the gaily colored eggs have been collected by Mrs. Palsgrove during the last 29 years. Others, including one dating back to 1813, are from the historical society's own collection. One, splashed with the Stars and Stripes, was painted in 1860 by Ben Ruth, a Reading boy killed in the Civil War.

At night the tree shines with lighted eggs fashioned by Mrs. Palsgrove.

The 1,400 eggs are fastened to the cotton wrapped twigs of the sassafras after Mrs. Palsgrove cut holes in top and bottom and drains the eggs. Dr. Alfred Shoemaker, curator of the historical society, said the custom is spreading to other parts of the nation. "I believe it someday will be as much a part of Easter as the Christmas tree is a part of the Yuletide season," he said.

WHITNEY FOLDING CARRIAGES & COACHES

WHITNEY leads in style again! The Whitney Folding Carriage is available in fashion colors. You've never laid eyes on such handsome carriages.

And this handsome folding carriage combines the smartness of an English Coach with the practical convenience of a folding carriage.

CONCEALED FOLDING GEAR replaces the old-style exposed gear.

STEER-O-MATIC WHEELS turn corners automatically and return to a straight-away position when the turn is completed. CENTER-SUSPENSION SPRINGS absorb vibration before it reaches the carriage to give baby an amazingly jar-free ride. The Whitney Folding Coach is unusually "close folding." Takes up a minimum of storage space.

Close fitting, draft-resisting hoods protect Baby's health. The body is roomy. Many styles are padded and quilted for greater smartness and extra comfort for Baby.

NEW NOTICE TO RUSSIA THAT US MEANS BUSINESS

(By The Associated Press)
Russia was on fresh notice today that the United States means business in its stop-Communism stand. The White House announcement that the army, rather than the State Department, will be in control indefinitely of the American efforts of Germany, Austria and Trieste was regarded as strengthening some of the most important lines to be held against Soviet expansion. Counter-Boycott

The curt counter-boycott by the U. S., French and British against Russia's walkout of the allied control council in Berlin showed the Soviets they will have a fight if they want to force the western powers from the German capital. Prestige is at stake.
Other signs were prospects in Washington of more billions being poured into the national defense bill, growing support for a peacetime draft of unmarried men up to 27 and fading opposition to the $6,205,000,000 grants for western Europe, Greece, Turkey and China.
Yugoslavia backed out of her tentative offer to allow Italy to have Trieste if Yugoslavia were given Italian Gorizia. The Italians had spurned the offer since Trieste is not Yugoslavia's but international territory. The Yugoslav foreign ministry spoke of a "misunderstanding" to its trial balloon.

Czechs Flee
A Russian assertion that France had granted rights on French military and air bases to the United States was termed absurd in Paris.
The Greek foreign office said the guerrillas are training impressed Greek villagers at a camp in Romania. A similar camp was reported previously in Yugoslavia.
A Communist deputy in Prague said President Eduard Benes has promised never to fight Communist policy. U. S. officials in Germany said 1,500 Czechs had fled into the American zone since the Communists seized power. The United States pressed in the United Nations for fullest inquiry into the Communist grab, which it charged Russia with engineering.

American railroads carry a billion passengers and 2,500,000,000 tons of freight each year.

land in the twelfth century," he said.
"The trust powers of a trustee such as the Littlestown National bank include executor, guardian, administrator, trustee, agent, custodian and the like. Trust accounts must maintain separate books and separate safes, by a trust committee."
The speaker also stated that "everybody should make a will, because estates not covered by a will are administered according to the laws of the state. To be legal, a will must be in writing, it must be signed and it must be witnessed. The present state tax is two per cent on direct heirs and ten per cent on indirect heirs."

The program was in charge of the vocational service committee, with Robert J. Kenworthy, chairman, in charge. Edward T. Richardson, president, was in charge of the business session. Next week the club will entertain the members of the local school patrols and the community service committee will be in charge of the program. Richard A. Little is chairman of the committee.

The March meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of St. John's Lutheran church was held Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Dallas Shriver, East King street. The pastor, the Rev. Kenneth D. James was in charge of the devotion. After the singing of several songs the pastor read portions of the Easter story from the four gospels. Mrs. Frank Hollinger offered prayer. There was a reading, "Gethsemane," by Mrs. Kenneth James.

The following program was presented: reading, "The White House Kitchen in 1862," by Mrs. John Spangler; reading, "The Minister's Blunder," by Mrs. William Lipsey; reading, "Going to Church," by Mrs. Paul Hawk; readings, "You," and "If God Forged," by Mrs. Edward Harget; and "March," by Mrs. Dallas Shriver. The birthdays of the Rev. Kenneth D. James, Mrs. Charles Shoemaker, Mrs. John Hawk and Mrs. Luther Spangler were noted. Games were then played, in charge of the pastor, after which the hostess committee served refreshments.

Mrs. Frank Hollinger presented the secretary's report when 20 members responded to the roll call. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Evelyn Aspers, West King street on Thursday, April 29.

at which time the hostess committee will consist of Miss Aspers, Mrs. Paul Hawk and Mrs. Alvin Groft.

Good Friday Services
Good Friday services in St. Alloysius church will begin with the mass of the pre-sanctified at 8 a. m. All the offerings received on Good Friday will go for the upkeep of the Holy Land. In the afternoon from 2 to 3 p. m., there will be an hour of agony, which the children especially will attend. The Stations of the Cross will be said at that time as well as in the evening at 7:30 o'clock. The adult instruction class will follow the evening service.

IF YOU ARE a sufferer of these ailments, try BIO-MINERAL. You may be astounded at the results. You need not guess—you will see facts. BIO-MINERAL comes from the earth—Nature's Laboratory. Contains NO dope, NO alcohol, NO oil. ONLY Nature's minerals, the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments.

BIO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. Lack of minerals in the blood causes anemia, headaches, nervousness. Minerals generate mental brilliancy, give sparkling eyes, red cheeks, fight disease, build up health.

Wonder Minerals

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid condition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain and suffering of these ills. People, on the advice of doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgia. He was helped or would not have gone there regularly twice a year.

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wondrous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thionin in ancient Greece where, according to legend Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

Amazing Results

BIO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best springs. Watch your elimination from your bowels a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE it. Also examine your urine. You may see impurities—poisonous waste—coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize the priceless value of BIO-MINERAL.

BIO-MINERAL is not a physic and does not interfere with the foods in the stomach. It cleans and purifies the intestines, thoroughly relieving gas, toxins, acids, and bloating. After these poisons are out of the system and the kidneys purified, we begin to feel the arthritis and rheumatism leaving, and Nature starting to complete the recovery.

We Guarantee

WE URGE everyone to try BIO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Come to Rea & Derick's now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money in full.
